

A PART OF the crowd of more than 3,000 people who attended the 12th International Frisbee Tournament in Eagle Harbor Sunday is seen in the foreground of and around the George Gipp Memorial Pagoda. They found the outing a time for visiting with friends, old and new, and enjoying the hi-jinks of Frisbee along with the deadly seriousness of the Guts Frisbee finals. In the background are the concession stand vans, which were staffed by members of the Calumet Elks Club and appeased the appetites and thirsts of Frisbeyites.
