ROSE BOWL, AUGUST 27

Welcome to the 5th Annual World Frisbee® disc Championships. The competitors in this year's meet have been invited on the basis of their performances in national competitions. On the North American continent, sixteen events from March through August comprised the national tour. Other competing countries selected their representatives in similar methods.

Sponsored by Gaines,® the K-9 Catch and Fetch™ Contest involved a series of tournaments in 520 cities across the United States.

The sport of Frisbee flying disc is unique. The World Frisbee disc Championships are not only its highest level of competition, but also a celebration of its special joys. All of the competitors have devoted many hours to discovering the amazing potential of the disc. We hope their performances will entertain you and add to your enjoyment of play with the Frisbee disc.

The World Frisbee® disc Championships would like to thank the following companies for their generous sponsorships of this year's event: Gaines® Dog Food (General Foods Inc.) and Coors Beer for each supplying 5,000 Frisbee discs to be given free to the first 10,000 spectators; Cronus Precision Stopwatches for the official timing devices used in the Maximum Time Aloft and Freestyle competitions; Speedo Ltd. for their donation of visors and disc bags to the competitors and staff; Nike Shoes for shoes worn by some of the competitors; and a very gracious thanks to California Institute of Technology for their hospitality in feeding and housing the competitors and staff, and for the use of their campus for the preliminary events.

We also would like to congratulate special guests Tita Ugalde and Dave Morris, the 1978 ACU-I Intercollegiate Women's and Men's Champions.
