WILLIAMSON UPDATE

This year's first WFC ankle victim, Ralph Williamson, is up and about and is in healthy spirits. It had been rumored that a telegram was sent to New York City to get John Dwork here to help Ralph compete in the Open Freestyle semis. For those of you who were not here last year, Dwork teamed up with Jon Cohn, who was in wheelchair with a leg cast, to reach the freestyle second round.

John Dwork has had a bad back this year, limiting his competitive play. It may sound funny, but of all ailments, John has a slipped disc. He will, however, run a fun freestyle festival at Hampshire College on Columbus Day weekend, as mentioned in these pages earlier.

WORLD PUTTING CHAMPIONSHIPS

A third prelim round was held Friday night with 7 players. It was won by Sean Sheldon with Eric Marx finishing second. After that a semi-final round was run with the top two finishers of the three heats. Advancing to the finals Sunday night at Don Vito's will be:

Bruce Podgorski
Michael Conger
Eric Marx

Not making the finals were Jerry Garrett, Sean Sheldon and Kevin McHugh. If Cap'n Snap must take an earlier flight, Jerry will move into the top three.

FLAP JACK GUTS

Friday night at Don Vito's a hotly contested Flap Jack Guts prelim featured 10 teams. Playing in the finals will be John Weyand/Don Hoskins, (the game's inventors) -vs- Craig Cheply/Scott Savoy. Third place may be contested and if so, it will be McLean/Buddhen -vs- Eric Keim/Tony Longo. It will be hot!

BEST DISC GOLF TOURNAMENT

A movement is afoot to have a best disc tournament Saturday morning around 9 A.M. There will be a $5.00 per person entry fee, and the winning pair will take the pot. If interested, meet at the Campus Park after breakfast. See Dave Dunipace of John Connelly.

GOING MY WAY? Three young men, desperate but with great conversational skills, would love to share a ride with someone to Northern California on Monday. The only hitch is that you have to supply the vehicle. if that sounds OK, contact Charlie Callahan, Chau Rottmann, or Pete Fust - on the field of in Bahia 102-D.

VELASQUEZ VALUABLES LOST: Brown and blue gym bag. Included in contents - clothing and workout gear (socks, jocks, shorts, and T-shirts). Also very valuable personal items like journal and passport. Would greatly appreciate its return. If possible, make a Peruvian Frisbee disc player very happy. Worthwhile reward to finder. See Jens Velasquez. Thanks.

FOUND!!! Doug Drawbond is happy to report that a gold, disc-shaped pendant that he lost on the DDC courts Tuesday was found. Apparently, Tim Selinske spotted it, tried to sell it, and not finding any buyers, decided to return it to Doug. Don't worry, Ski: we will not tell your mother!! Doug Drawbond, by the way, now believes in WFC Review classifieds and has decided to take a yearly subscription.

CLASSIFIED MAGIC STRIKES AGAIN Guess what? A guy named Keith found Teresa Gaman's lost golf disc and was going to put it in his collection until he read about her loss in the WFC Review. Teresa now has her disc back and swears by the power of the press.

LOST BUT NOT LEAST LOST: A pair of Nike Astro Grabbers and a beach chair, from a parking lot near the DDC fields on Thursday. Disappeared about 11:00 A.M. Reward offerred. Return them to Damian Lambrose in Otero 201-D.

DAILY DONUTS

Most of todays's donuts come from the TR & C competition, which Michael Conger calls "Diving for Dollars."

Youngman and Zimmerman had some good exchanges. Taking a rest after his first TR & C throw, Youngman went over and leaned down on Scott's shoulder. Scott looked up and said, "Not on the right shoulder, Joe."

After Scott had pumped out a l-o-n-g TR&C throw, Youngman said, "Wish I could throw like that." (This is after winning the distance).

On that same throw, Zimmerman, not having heard Joe's quip, said, "Sure wish I had your legs."

Shortly, thereafter, the official at that site, Chris Baker, got out a measuring tape, and asked, "Hey, do we have any volunteers to help measure?" Scott Zimmerman objected, "But that's only three throws!" Baker replied, "I know. I just want to be ready."

After a good TR&C throw by Michele Marini, Conger commented, "Must be from all the pushups she and Dave do."

Every year someone loses a food tray in the meal hall. This year's bumpee was Craig Hunter. What was ironic was that Paul Thompson, who being a good guy, was helping pick the food up off the floor while the back of his T-shirt read, "End World Hunger."

Old Swedish saying: "Sometimes Arvand goes to town and walks around like regular people."

There were a few unusual TR & C catches yesterday. Joe Youngman, not known for his freestyle (Who is the only WFC competitor who does not know how to nail delay?), made a knee trap on a short throw - it was only about 50 meters.

THE HUNGER PROJECT MEETING

Twenty-five players and locals got together Friday night at a meeting under Paul Thompson's direction. They viewed an excellent film, "I Want to Live" and had a "good-vibe-filled" discussion that resulted in a decision for action by disc players to help end world hunger.

Towards that end, a fundraising benefit will take place with an auction at the Fly Market tonight. All players can participate. Collectors can donate from 10 to 100 per cent of the sale of any item. Everyone else can bid the donations up. Let Ron Kaufman know of your donation as soon as possible.

MORE DAILY DONUTS.....

A spectacular catch was made by John O'Malley, who started from one circle on site 3 and ended up next to the leftspin circle about 90 meters away. Just as he dove, he kicked Vic Malafronte's bag, broke Victor's sunglasses, and nearly broke the TR & C record, hitting 81.11 meters. Shortly thereafter, Tom Monroe methodically paced off the throw while they were still throwing. He approached the official Jim Powers, who was protecting the marker disc. Tom, wearing his trademark mirror sunglasses, pronounced, "82 meters. He's short." This was 15 minutes before the throw was measured. Tom's world record is 82.6 meters.

Switching to golf. On hole #3, Craig Hunter put a disc up in a tree. Soon someone said, "Here it is." Sure enough, it said "Craig Hunter" on it. Except that it was the disc he had lost the day before.

Hole #12 was costly for many players, the hole on the plateau that is difficult to drive. This hole proved most costly for someone who wasn't even playing. Doug Newland, who was the official for the top qualifying group of Zimmerman, Marx, Monroe, and Jewell promised anyone who deuced the hole a $7.00 hacky sack. What happened? All four drove the green; only Jewell missed the putt. However, Newland had also promised a hacky sack to the player in his group who scored the most 2's in the round: it was Jewell. Doug was out $28.00 and four hacky sacks - that is called "taking a bag."

U.S. TEAM UNIFORMS AND ALL PLAYERS SUNDAY LUNCH TICKET PICK-UP

All U.S. competitors - please pick up your uniforms for wearing in the Rose Bowl by stopping in at Lago RA Suite #104 between 8-10 P.M. Saturday night (tonight!).

All players - If you want to eat lunch in the Bowl, you must present your SUNDAY LUNCH TICKET. Pick up this ticket in Lago, Suite #104, again between 8-10 P.M. tonight.

All foreign competitors - you should be prepared to wear your national association uniform on the field at the Rose Bowl on Sunday.

TRIVIA CONTEST #3 ANSWERS AND WINNING RESULTS

Wow! Only three entries today, but one of them was from a non-U.S. player - Mark Powers of Australia. At this rate, we will actually reach double digits for trivia contest entrants this week!

Mark wasn't our winner, however. That distinction and a one-of-a-kind specially hotstamped 1980 WFC tournament disc goes to Sue Beukelman. Nice going, Sue. Way to edge out Boxcar Mama!

ANSWERS

1. Regarding the youngest players at the 1980 WFC, Torsten Gorke (West Germany), David Wilson (Australia), and Jan Ekman (Sweden) are all age 16. Kenji Daisaku (Japan) and Jean-Luc Chares (France) are both 15. I really don't know the ranking - I just make up the questions.

2. The world record for the longest Frisbee catch by a dog is by Martha Faye thrown by Dave Johnson (334.6feet); John Pickerill, Martha's owner, is in the Guinness picture.

3. 6 states have only one WFC representative ;
   Tennessee - Tom Wingo
   Idaho - Gregg Beukelman
   Mississippi - Wally Free
   Massachusetts - Suzanne Fields
   Wisconsin - Steve Jennings
   Maryland - Michael Conger

4. The IFA was formed in 1967. Its first director was Robert Werden.

5. The first Ultimate game in the Rose Bowl was played in 1975. A "hotspot" in the end zone was worth 5 points - other scores were worth 3 points.

6. The womens overall Frisbee disc champions have been Jo Cahow, ('74, '75), Monika Lou ('76, '77), Laura Engel ('78) and Teresa Gaman ('79).

7. The following are the full names with nicknames listed of WFC players:
   Doc - Paige Anderson
   Stork - Dan Roddick
   Steady Ed- Ed Headrick
   Sauce - Don Cain
   Muggs - Margaret Curtis
   J.C. - Jon Cohn, Jim Challas, John Connelly, Jo Cahow
   Cap'n Snap - Michael Conger
   Boxcar Mama - Sheryl Payne
   Super Friz - Victor Malafronte
   The Pretender - John Kirkland

8. According to Jim Palmeri the inventor of"Golem" (which means garbage or junk) is Jeff Hungerford in the winter of '76 in the back of the Flying Disc and Chess Shop.

NOTE: Because of extensive record coverage and total exhaustion of the staff, you will have to live without the trivia contest today. Hope you got your fill on the Daily Donuts.
