A BROKEN ANKLE

I know you will all be sorry to hear that one of our Grand Masters has broken his ankle along with tearing many ligaments. Ralph Williamson was in a DDC game today and thought he had badly sprained his ankle. He continued to finish the game. Later, he hobbled up to the announcement stand and said he thought he had better get to a doctor. While waiting for a car, he was up and walking with a bad limp but insisted on getting around on his own.

I spoke to him while we were waiting for the car to arrive. He has an excellent attitude about the whole situation. "I have been playing for 7 years and this is the first injury I have incurred. I consider that very lucky." He felt it would heal quickly and he would go on about his business. Now it looks like it will take a little longer but Ralph's spirit should be an inspiration to us all.

We all wish you a speedy recovery, Ralph, and hope you can be with us again next year in good health.

LOST. A gold, disc-shaped pendant inscribed with "KUUL" on the front and "Frisbee toss" on the back was lost on Tuesday, probably on the DDC field. If you have found it, please see Doug Drawbond in Mariposa 202-B.

FREESTYLE SIGN-UP: LAST CHANCE

Did you forget to sign up for freestyle yesterday? Well, this is a reprieve. But if you want to style in this year's WFC, you must see Jim Palmeri by noon today! Catch Jim at breakfast or on the SCF field this morning.

FUN-FILLED FREESTYLE FESTIVAL AND FREE FOOD

Hampshire College, a hotbed of freestyle and Ultimate activity, will host it's Third Annual Flying Disc Freestyle Festival on Columbus Day weekend, October 9-12. Hightlights will include:

1. The World Progressive Freestyle Championships (for creative drops).
2. Attempts at setting new world records in Maxi-Op, Hoop roll and chest roll.
3. The first judging forum using video tape to determine results.
4. Other activities, ie, parties, demos for TV, etc.

John Dwork, who teamed with Jon Cohn and wheelchair to reach the freestyle semi-finals at last year's WFC, is the coordinator of this festival and can be reached at Hampshire College, Box 1606, Amherst, Mass., 01002; Phone (413) 549-4600, Ext. 212. Contact John at least one month in advance, and he will cover the cost of your meals while attending the event.

THE HUNGER PROJECT

Each year 15 to 20 million people die of hunger and malnutrition (75 per cent are children under 5). This happens in a world that produces plenty of food for everyone and that possesses the technology to end hunger. What, then, is the reason that hunger persists and, in fact, is growing worse? Because we have not made the commitment to end starvation...in our country, our communities, and as individuals.

The end of hunger resides within each of us, and as disc players we have many unique opportunities to raise the hunger consciousness of the communities where we live. The Hunger Project is about individuals making personal commitments and aligning to end hunger by the end of this century.

Come see the film "I Want to Live" and bring your ideas and questions about how we as disc players can work together to create a world that works for all people. We can make a difference.

Paul Thompson will emcee this gathering in the Otero lounge on Friday, August 22, beginning at 7:30 P.M.

LA MIRADA OPEN RESULTS

The La Mirada disc golf course, under course pro Dan Mangone's direction, annually runs a tune-up tournament the weekend before the WFC. This year's contest drew 190 competitors, the largest Open yet. Saturday was qualifying day with one round. Sunday was the 36-hole cumulative day. The Men's (Open) Division alone drew 160 players, with cash prizes awarded through 15th place.

OPEN DIVISION

PLACE	PLAYER	36-HOLE SCORE	PRIZE MONEY
1	Dave Dunipace	-5 (103)	$350
2	John Wright	-4 (104)	$200
3	Peter Jansson	-3 (105)	$100
4	Jerry Garrett	-3 (105)	$ 85
5	Eric Marx	-3 (105)	$ 60

John Wright, a La Mirada local, is not in the WFC; so that is one less culprit to worry about. Of special interest is that Peter Jansson of Sweden took third place by birdieing the first play-off hole (a two on hole number 1), Jerry Garrett parred it for fourth, and Eric Marx, the 1979 La Mirada Open winner, bogied it and settled for 5th. Incidentally, Scott Zimmerman and Don Wilchek had the best individual rounds, minus 5's, both in the qualifying round Saturday.

WOMEN'S AND SENIOR DIVISION

In the women's division Cynthia Allen took the title to become the only 3-time champion of the La Mirada Open. Teresa Gaman finished in second.

Wayne Shurts with a minue one took the Master's division (but is not in the WFC) and Jim Olsen, Sr. with a plus 10 won the Grand Master's division. Jim is the WFC Review pick to win golf at the WFC because of the effects of his large and intimidating personal gallary.

PUTTING YOUR BEST FOOT FORWARD

The first round of the World Putting Championships began Tuesday evening on the volleyball court near Mesa Court Commons and then, bumped by a 4-H volleyball game, moved to the front of Bahia. A huge gallery watched as Jerry Garrett put on an awesome exhibition to win the round. Kevin McHugh, by finishing second, also advanced. Eliminated players were stuck with the letters F-R-I-S-B-E-E R .

The Putting Championships continue and will finish Sunday night at Don Vito's. See Dan Mangone or Doug Newland for information.

DAILY DONUTS

Wally Free, commenting on the results of the La Mirada Open;
"Someone told me before the round on Saturday, 'Hey, man! Just shoot consistently, and you'll win.' So I shot a 7-over, a 7-over, and a 7-over. And they didn't give me anything."

Michael Conger, on the field Wednesday;
"This is the last known bottle of Calistoga water left."
(Said two minutes after an announcement that we have 1,800 bottles of Calistoga to get us through the week).

The story gets funnier but you'll have to ask Michael about it.

Imprinted on the Mini of European Freestyle Champs Jason Salkey (here) and Adrian Wainwright (not here);
"Where Am I And Which Spin Do I Take?"

Overheard at practice on Tuesday;
RON WIDEL: "Hey, Palmeri, how about a six-pack bet on distance?"
JIM PALMERI: (Short pause) "Why the hell not?"

Note that in the past, this has also been Palmeri's response to disastrous ventures that began; "How about starting a Flying Disc and Chess Shop!" and "Let's get married."

HACKY SACK JACK

Jack Schoolcraft (not John, as previously stated) has been one of the enjoyable added attractions to this year's WFC. Kudos goes to Chau Rottmann, Jamie Moldt, Steve Hubbard, Erwin Velasquez, Anne Campagna, Marie Bracciale (pronounced Bra-shah-lee) and Tony Longo (non-WFC) for hacky sack aptitude. Try hacky sack with Jack - the aura of calm he exudes may be just what you need to ease the tensions of competition.

LATE BREAKING NEWS

The Putting Championship results are in: (1) Bruce Podgorski, (2) Cap'n Snap, (3) Snapper Pierson, (4) Toby from Sweden (12 years old), (5) Henry Robinson, (6) Jonas from Sweden, and (7) Anders Svensson. Only the top two players advance to the next round.

TRIVIA

THE WINNER:

Craig Hunter, and Cap'n Snap teamed up to win a special creatively hotstamped 1980 WFC tournament disc by getting all but one right answer on Wednesday's quiz. (They forgot to ask Palmeri about the Super Pro label). This by the way, was our only submission of an answer sheet.

We are hearing lots of discussion - that's great - communication is the reason for the contest. But let's get some more entries. Submit them to Mark Danna or Jo Cahow at meals, on the field, or in Bahia (102-A or 202-A). Take a look at Craig's disc - let's hear from you.

ANSWERS TO WEDNESDAY'S TRIVIA CONTEST:

1. Eric Marx was the last WFC open division qualifier with 68.5 points.
2. The Mickey Mouse Club was the nationally syndicated TV program which was filmed at Oak Grove in 1976. CBS Sports Spectacular also briefly filmed but that is a national program.
3. Mickey Hjartsjo is the only Swede to have participated in 4 WFC's from 1977 through 1980.
4. There are 17 ridges on an 80 mold disc.

5. Actually, there are 3 players who have been on World Championship teams in both Ultimate and Guts. Al Bonopane and Irv Kalb played for Rutgers University (Ultimate) and the Foothill team that is the current Guts Champion. Tom Cleworth played for the Highland Ave. Aces (Guts) and the Santa Barbara Condors (Ultimate).
6. The original Super Pros distinctive feature was no writing on it.
7. Seppo Niemenen from Finland is the only non-US senior player.
8. Only John Kirkland and Joseph Youngman have competed at all 7 WFC;s.
9. We goofed. There are 4 players in the open division in the past 4 years who have been the top ten overall at least 3 times; John Kirkland (2-1-2-2), Tom Kennedy (X-10-3-3), Ken Westerfield (7-5-X-4) and Peter Bloeme (1-2-5-X).
10. Scott Goodman of Hamsdale, New York at the Big Apple Jam in New York City in 1976 won the MTA, which was an automatic invitation to the WFC. Although his name appeared in the 1976 WFC program, he never showed up and has not been heard from since.
