Wisecup Defends Title at BG Open

Steve Wisecup shot an outstanding 6-under-par in ferocious winds in the final round to win the BG Open for the second year in a row. Dr Rick Voakes took second in the field of 75 Open Pro golfers.

In the very first round Steve set a new course record for Hobson with a -12, but in the second round Dr Rick came back with a -14 for a new course record at Kereiakes.

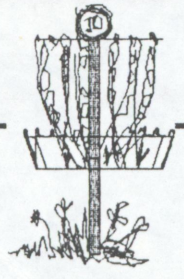
Al Schack beat Steve Slasor in a play-off for third place, and David Greenwell won fifth place. 21 places were paid, and the top TEN received $100 or more, with the top spot earning $577.

Patti Kunkle won $202 by winning the Women's Div, and Sylvia Voakes came in second only 3 strokes back.

In his very first tournament in (can you believe it?) the Masters Div, Lavone Wolfe pulled in a cool $300, as second place finisher Doug Thompson took home $155. Bo Nash took third, and twice Masters World Champion John David came in fourth, in a big Masters field of 18.

Ron Lafferty won the Advanced Div, and Mark Hunt won the Amateur Div. There were a total of 23 amateurs competing.

Special thanks go to Mel Taylor for competing in the Pee Wee Division!



BG Disc Storms Memphis

Sylvia Voakes led the attack, by winning the 1989 Dogwood Classic in Memphis by 5 strokes over last year's champion Jill Oliver Mosakowski.

In the Men's Div, Melvin Galloway defended his title, while brother Paul set a new course record of 8 under par. Dr Rick came in second, after a play-off with Al Ballew and George Coffin. Al Schack and Jim Weeks made the cut to the top 15 and picked up some good qualifying points.

Barry Gill won his first Masters title with a comfortable lead.

BG player Tracy Rossi won a three-way play-off to take second place in Amateurs, only 1 stroke off the lead. On the 306-foot play-off hole, Tracy powered his drive past the hole, while the competition stuggled down the fairway.

Sylvia Voakes Honored

Sylvia Voakes was presented with the first annual H B Clark Award during the awards ceremony at the BG Open. The award was conceived and donated by Ernie Small, to honor the disc golfer who has done the most to promote the sport in Bowling Green each year.

H B Clark was also on hand, claiming before the TV cameras to be the "Father of Disc Golf" in Bowling Green, which of course he is.

May Tournament Series

The May tournament series will be held each Tuesday evening in May at Kereiakes Park, starting at 6:30 pm (one round). Entry fee $3, all divisions.

There will be prizes for pro, advanced and amateur divisions. Foursomes will be mixed so that the pros can do some teaching.

Bring as many new players as you can!

Where Can I Get a Disc?
